Biography

Aaron Cressman is a member of the 2019-2020 articling student class at Cassels. Aaron first joined the firm as a summer student in 2018. He received his J.D. from Osgoode Hall Law School. At Osgoode, he was an active member of the student community, leading orientation week activities and mentoring first year students. Aaron also worked as a Research Assistant to Osgoode's Artist in Residence and was a member of his school's Environmental Justice and Sustainability Clinic. Prior to law school, Aaron graduated from Queen's University with an Honours Bachelor of Arts, majoring in Sociology and minoring in History. During his time at Queen's, Aaron volunteered with his student government's Commission of Environment and Sustainability and worked as a server and bartender at one of Kingston's fine dining establishments. Prior to attending law school, Aaron spent a summer working at a law firm in Elmira, Ontario. In his spare time, Aaron enjoys snowboarding, hiking, reading, concerts, and travelling. During his third year at Osgoode Aaron spent a semester on exchange at the University of Copenhagen Law School, Denmark.
