Biography

Leonard (Len) Glickman* is a partner in the Business Law Group at Cassels and serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Sports & Entertainment and Cannabis Groups. Len provides transactional and intellectual property advice to clients in the entertainment and sports industries. He is Chair of the ABA's Entertainment and Sports Law Forum, a frequent speaker at industry events and seminars, and co-author of the Music Law chapter of Entertainment Law in Canada (published by Butterworths). He is counsel to several high-profile recording artists, including: Shawn Mendes, The Weeknd, Barenaked Ladies, Bob Dylan, Avril Lavigne, Sarah McLachlan, The Tragically Hip, Serena Ryder and Ren. Leonard provides intellectual property, branding and sponsorship counsel to Canada's largest home improvement retailer and advises Roots – one of Canada's leading lifestyle brands – on its worldwide trademark matters. He is also counsel to Endeavor/WME/IMG and Mavericks VFX, one of Canada's leading visual effects companies.

Len advises several film and television production and distribution companies and broadcasters, including: the BBC, and Pyramid Productions. He is counsel to QVC, the US-based home shopping network, and Canadian trademark counsel to Chef Gordon Ramsay, Metallica, Julia Michaels, Guns n Roses and Will I Am. Len is also Canadian counsel to many international fashion brands and companies.

In the sports field, Leonard is counsel to P.K. Subban of the New Jersey Devils and the Toronto Wolfpack of the Rugby Football League. He is also Canadian trademark counsel to The Arsenal Football Club and intellectual property counsel to Capital Sports and Entertainment (Ottawa Senators).
