Biography

Timon Li (he/him/his) is an associate in the Banking & Specialty Finance Group at Cassels. Timon's practice focuses on corporate and commercial law, including domestic and cross-border financing transactions and corporate finance matters. He has experience representing lenders, borrowers and syndicates involved in secured and unsecured financing transactions. Timon is also developing experience in multi-jurisdictional acquisition financings, sponsor leveraged buyouts and distressed M&A transactions. Before becoming an associate at Cassels, Timon summered and articulated at the firm.

Timon graduated from the J.D. program at the University of Toronto, where he served as an Associate Editor on the University of Toronto Faculty of Law Review and volunteered with the David Asper Centre for Constitutional Rights. Prior to law school, Timon graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce (First-Class Honours) from the Smith School of Business at Queen's University. While attending business school, Timon also completed an academic exchange to the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology.
