Biography

Brandi is a senior paralegal with the Real Estate & Development Group at Cassels. She works closely with the firm's real estate lawyers on all aspects of real estate transactions including commercial lending, development, title searches and review, due diligence, closings, and reporting.

Prior to joining Cassels, Brandi was with a national law firm for 18 years working in their local Real Estate Department and was involved with a number of large commercial and residential subdivision developments, acquisitions of both commercial and residential properties as well as financing for both lender and borrower, specializing in all aspects of real estate. She has developed and maintained long term professional relationships with many of her clients.
