Biography

Kiyam Jamal is an associate in the Litigation Group at Cassels. Kiyam received his JD from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law. During law school, Kiyam worked with the David Asper Centre for Constitutional Rights, a body devoted to advocacy, research, and education in constitutional rights in Canada. Kiyam also held a Research Assistant position at the Faculty of Law after his first year of study. During his final year, Kiyam competed in the Julius Alexander Isaac Moot, which historically focuses on an area of law in which issues of equity and diversity arise. Prior to joining Cassels as an associate, Kiyam was both a summer and articling student with the firm.

Prior to joining Cassels, Kiyam was a first-year summer law student at the Centre for Equality Rights in Accommodation (CERA), a leading NGO working to advance the right to adequate housing. Before law school, Kiyam graduated with Dean's Honours from McGill University with a Bachelor of Arts in Economics. At McGill, Kiyam undertook a supervised research project on microfinance lending in developing countries.

In his spare time, Kiyam enjoys golfing, playing the guitar, and cheering for the Vancouver Canucks.
