Biography

Cait Quartarone (she/her/hers) is an associate in the Business Law Group at Cassels. Cait attended law school at the University of Ottawa where she graduated cum laude. At law school, Cait was an active member of her student community as a volunteer with Pro Bono Students Canada and the Durham Legal Clinic. Prior to joining Cassels, Cait spent her summer doing legal research for two professors and was a Legal Writing Leader with the Legal Writing Academy. Cait was the captain of the University of Ottawa's Intramural Hockey Team and co-captain of the University of Ottawa's Co-ed Intramural Soccer Team. Prior to joining Cassels as an associate, Cait was both a summer and articling student with the firm.

Before studying law, Cait graduated with a Specialized Honours Bachelor of Arts (with highest distinction) in Political Science from York University where she was also placed on the Dean's Honour Roll. While obtaining her degree, Cait worked in sales and served as a student mentor.

Cait enjoys playing sports, expanding her coveted vinyl collection, and spending time outdoors hiking with her dog.
