

Biography

Brian Scholz is the Chief Administrative Officer at Cassels. In this role, Brian is responsible for all aspects of firm administration, including leading the administrative oversight and overall management of the firm's offices, developing and executing real estate strategy, establishing and leading the Project Management Office, and managing the firm's procurement budget by implementing national procurement strategies, processes, and standards.

Brian Scholz

Chief Administrative Officer

Contact Information

416 869 5776
bscholz@cassels.com

Office

Toronto