

Mohammad Ameli

Articling Student

Contact Information

416 860 6456
mameli@cassels.com

Office

Toronto

Biography

Mohammad Ameli is a member of the 2023-2024 Articling Student class at Cassels and previously summered with the firm. Mohammad completed his J.D. at Queen's University, Faculty of Law. While at Queen's Law, he served as Vice-President of the Securities Law Club, was an oralist in the Davies Corporate and Securities Law Moot, and was appointed as a mentor to first-year law students. He also served as a panelist for the Queen's Muslim Law Students Association, and was a member of the Queen's Jewish Law Students Association, as well as the Chess Club – where he won the Queen's Law Chess Tournament. Apart from his immediate cohort, Mohammad sang at some Vogue Charity Fashion Show events in Kingston, and was a frequent panelist and formal mentor to many undergraduate students with the Queen's Pre-Law Society.

Prior to law school, Mohammad graduated from York University with an Honours Bachelor of Arts in Criminology as a member of the Dean's Honour Roll, and went on to do his Master's in Political Science.

In his spare time, Mohammad enjoys barbequing, singing with friends, and studying political economy, history, and religion.

Insights

- The Cassels Conspectus* – No. 1: Financial Blackout Periods