Biography

Ari Glass (he/him/his) is a member of the 2023-2024 Articling Student class at Cassels. Ari just finished his dual JD/MBA program at Queen's, where he was the co-founder and co-president of the Queen's Real Estate Law Association. Ari was also the co-president of the Queen's Law Private Equity Club and the Queen's Law Environmental Club, where he worked with his peers to plan and facilitate speaker panels with practicing business lawyers. Ari also served as a mentor for several students at Queen's through the Queen's Law Students Society, the Queen's Women and Law Club, and the Queen's Pre-Law Society. Ari has a wide variety of previous work experience, ranging from working at a real estate law firm in Toronto during his 1L summer, teaching swimming in his community, and working as a Head Counsellor at Camp Solelim at which he worked for 5 summers. Ari summered with Cassels in his 2L summer.

Prior to studying law, Ari attended Ryerson University where he was accepted to law school a year early out of his third year of a 4-year Bachelor of Arts program. Ari was the recipient of the award for an Outstanding Performance in Research Methods & Statistics, as well as the award for an Outstanding Performance in the Environment and Urban Sustainability program. Ari was placed on the Dean's Honour Roll List every semester of his program.

In his spare time, Ari loves cooking for his family and friends, playing tennis and going to the driving range, and trying as many restaurants as he can.
