Biography

Anna Glover is a member of the 2023-2024 Articling Student class at Cassels. Anna recently graduated from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law. While at law school, Anna participated in her community by working as a student caseworker at Downtown Legal Services, providing poverty law services. Anna also volunteered with Citizens with Disabilities Ontario through Pro Bono Students of Canada. In her second year, Anna was awarded the Insolvency Institute of Canada Prize in Insolvency Studies for the student with the top grade in her Bankruptcy and Insolvency class.

Prior to starting at Cassels, Anna worked in several Toronto bakeries and can still be found testing her favourite recipes. In the rest of her spare time, Anna likes to bike, read, and visit local parks.
