Biography

Aditi Mallavarapu (she/her) is a member of the 2023-2024 Articling Student class at Cassels. She is an internationally trained lawyer from India and completed a Business law focused LL.M at the University of Toronto.

In India, Aditi's practice focused primarily on private equity transactions and advising clients on an array of general business law queries. She also co-authored the 2020 Private Equity in India practice guide for Chambers & Partners. Outside work, she served as a mentor with the Mentor Me India program, a non-governmental organisation aimed at mentoring students in government-run schools.

In her spare time, Aditi enjoys travelling, experimenting with south-Asian recipes and watching tennis.
