Biography

Nicola Woods (she/her/hers) is an associate in the Banking & Specialty Finance Group at Cassels. Nicola graduated from the J.D. program at the University of Windsor. While in law school, Nicola was an active member of her student community, acting as a Social Orientation Committee member and a volunteer for Windsor Law's Peer Mentorship Program where she helped first year students with the transition to law school. Prior to joining Cassels as an associate, Nicola was both a summer and articling student with the firm.

Prior to attending law school, Nicola held various Merchandising and Logistics roles at one of Canada's premier retailers. She holds a Bachelor of Business Management Degree with a minor in Entrepreneurship and Innovation from Dalhousie University.

In her spare time Nicola enjoys cycling, pilates and going on walks with her dog.
