

Shermaine Chua

Articling Student

Contact Information

778 309 7971
schua@cassels.com

Office

Vancouver

Biography

Shermaine Chua (she/her/hers) is a member of the 2023-2024 Articling Student class at Cassels. She received her J.D. from the University of Victoria.

During law school, Shermaine was a publications manager and editorial board member for Appeal: Review of Current Law and Law Reform, an executive member of the Law Students' Society, co-president of the Business Law Association, and a member of the Environmental Law Club. She also completed clinical terms with the Environmental Law Centre and Business Law Clinic, worked as a Research Assistant, and volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada. Shermaine was an oralist in the Julius Alexander Isaac Moot, where she and her moot partner placed second, and competed in the Canadian Client Consultation Competition.

Prior to law school, Shermaine was an investment representative with a wealth management firm. She holds a B.A. in International Relations from the University of British Columbia.

In her spare time, she enjoys painting, trying out new teas, and travelling.

Insights

- Bill 12 Updates: British Columbia Places Proposed Health Care Costs Recovery Legislation on Hold, Enters Negotiations with Social Media Companies
- No Open Floodgates: BCCA Upholds the Defence of Statutory Authorization for Impacts to Aboriginal Rights by Third Parties
- Quebec Court Finds UNDRIP Binding and a Universal Aboriginal Right to Economic Development

Education / Bar Admissions

- J.D., University of Victoria