Biography

Gillian Harrington (she/her/hers) is an associate in the Banking & Specialty Finance Group at Cassels. Gillian's practice focuses on corporate and commercial law, representing lenders and borrowers on secured financing transactions, including real estate and acquisition financings. Her practice includes both domestic and cross-border financing transactions and corporate finance matters.

While in law school, Gillian was involved with Pro Bono Students Canada (PBSC) and served as the Project Coordinator for the Consent Legal Education Project. In her final year with PBSC, Gillian won a Chief Justice Richard Wagner Award for outstanding leadership. Also in law school, Gillian competed in the Global Negotiation Conference based out of the University of Zurich, where her team received the highest accolade.

Prior to joining Cassels, Gillian summered and articulated in the Calgary office of an international law firm.

Outside of work, Gillian enjoys travelling, being outdoors, and viewing or creating art.
