

Luke Casburn

Articling Student

Contact Information

778 309 7960
lcasburn@cassels.com

Office

Vancouver

Biography

Luke Casburn (he/him/his) is a member of the 2023-2024 Articling Student class at Cassels, Luke previously summered with the firm. Luke is a graduate of the LLM CL program at the Peter A. Allard School of Law at UBC. Prior to this, he graduated with an LLB from the University of Galway in Ireland. During his LLB and LLM, Luke has worked for a leading consumer electronics and personal computer company as a technician and another Vancouver law firm as a legal assistant and paralegal in their Real Estate department.

During law school in Ireland, Luke was the Vice-Auditor of the Music Society and ran various events including open mics, charity concerts and jam sessions.

In his spare time, Luke enjoys playing soccer, biking and playing music.

Insights

- Proposed Amendments to British Columbia's Land Act Intended to Increase Decision-Making Authority for Indigenous Peoples Over Crown Lands
- Whistleblowers Get Financial Compensation: The BCSC Debuts Its Whistleblower Program
- Amendments to the BC Securities Act Grant New Powers to the BCSC to Seek Administrative Contempt Charges and Investigate Investment Market Misconduct

Education / Bar Admissions

- LLM CL, Peter A. Allard School of Law, University of British Columbia
- LL.B., University of Galway (Ireland)