Biography

Jason Wang is an associate in the Business Law Group at Cassels. Jason has a corporate and securities law practice with a focus on mergers and acquisitions, public and private equity and debt financings, capital market transactions, corporate finance, shareholder activism and corporate governance matters.

Jason has significant expertise in both public and private M&A, having led and acted on share and asset acquisitions, plans of arrangement, take-over bids and complex corporate reorganizations. Jason also acts for issuers and underwriters on equity and debt financings, including shelf and short form prospectus offerings and private placements.

His experience includes acting for:

- issuers and underwriters/agents in private and public equity and debt offerings, including cross-border financings, financial advisory services and regulatory compliance matters;
- public and private companies in mergers and acquisitions transactions including share and asset purchases, amalgamations, and plans of arrangement; and
- advising clients on corporate and securities law matters, including with respect to corporate governance, continuous disclosure requirements and other regulatory compliance issues.

Jason is also currently a board member of Startup Grind Calgary, an internationally focused startup organization that educates, inspires, and connects entrepreneurs across international chapters.

Before joining Cassels, Jason was an associate in the Calgary office of another national law firm.
