Biography

Raagavi Ramenthiran is a member of the 2026-2027 Articling Student class at Cassels. Raagavi recently graduated from the joint JD/MBA program at Osgoode Hall Law School and the Schulich School of Business. During her studies at Osgoode, Raagavi served as President of both the JD/MBA Association and the Osgoode Women's Network, and was actively involved in initiatives including Pro Bono Students Canada, the Osgoode Investor Protection Clinic, the Artists' Legal Advice Services Clinic, Law in Action Within Schools, and the Osgoode Tamil Law Students' Association.

Prior to joining Cassels, Raagavi worked as a licensed real estate agent while in school. She has also served as a research assistant to Professor Poonam Puri, focusing on securities regulation. In recognition of her leadership across business and law, Raagavi recently received the 2026 Torkin Manes LLP Trailblazer Award from the Women's Law Association of Ontario. In her spare time, Raagavi enjoys travelling, hiking, going to concerts, and spending time with friends and family.
