

Hannah Rizzotti

Associate

Contact Information

587 441 3100
hrizzotti@cassels.com

Office

Calgary

Expertise

- Employment & Labour

Biography

Hannah Rizzotti is an associate in the Employment & Labour Group at Cassels. Hannah practices in all areas of employment and labour law and advises provincially and federally regulated employers on a broad range of workplace issues, including workplace harassment and violence, human rights and workplace accommodations, employee performance, discipline and termination, employment agreements and policies, workplace investigations, employment standards, and agreement interpretation.

Prior to joining Cassels, Hannah was an associate in the Litigation Group at a full-service law firm in Calgary.

Insights

- Preparing for Bill C-39: Upcoming Changes to the Canada Labour Code and What Federally Regulated Employers Need to Know
- Alberta's Bill 11: Important Changes to Employer Sponsored Benefit Plans
- Protected: Alberta Court Confirms Frustration of Contract and Limits on Duty to Accommodate for Permanently Disabled Employees

Pro Bono & Community Involvement

- Pro Bono Students Canada, University of Calgary, Former Project Lead
- Canadian Child Abuse Association, Volunteer Court Accompaniment
- Into the Streets, University of Calgary, Former Program Lead

Education / Bar Admissions

- J.D., University of Calgary, 2023
- B.A., University of Calgary, 2019
- Alberta, 2024