Biography

Jason Arbuck* (he/him/his) is the Chair of the Banking & Specialty Finance Group and Co-Chair of the Hospitality Group at Cassels. Jason's practice is devoted to commercial and asset-based lending transactions, banking and securitization transactions, factoring and fintech related legal work, hotel financing and acquisition transactions, and real estate development projects. A large portion of his practice is focussed on cross-border transactions. He has significant experience in drafting and negotiating loan and credit agreements, receivables purchase agreements, hotel purchase agreements, and hotel management agreements.

Jason's representative work includes having acted for:

- The ownership group in acquisition and sale of the Thompson Hotel Toronto
- Global Resource Fund, as senior secured lender to Jaguar Mining Inc., in proceedings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act and the conversion of $268 million unsecured bond debt to equity
- Columbia Pacific Advisors in the acquisition of a portfolio of retirement homes
- Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ in the securitization of a $500 million portfolio of automobile receivables
- Solutions 2 GO Inc. in arranging its $175 million syndicated asset-based lending facility with Bank of America, N.A.

Jason has appeared on BNN's SqueezePlay, speaks regularly at industry events, and has guest lectured at the Schulich School of Business. He has also lectured at many continuing education seminars, including Ontario Bar Association seminars and US-based continuing legal education seminars.

Jason sits on the board of directors and the executive of the Association of Commercial Finance Attorneys, Secured Finance Network Canada or SFNet (formerly the Commercial Finance Association), the board of directors of the JD/MBA Alumni Association for Osgoode Hall Law School and the Schulich School of Business, the board of directors of Integrated Services for Autism and Neurodevelopmental Disorders (ISAND) and the board of directors of the Osgoode Hall Alumni Association. He is also an active member of the Toronto Opinions Group (TOROG) and the Personal Property Security Legislation subcommittee of the Ontario Bar Association (PPSL).
