Biography

Aamir Chherawala is an associate in the Securities Group at Cassels. Aamir's practice focuses on advising public issuers and dealers on domestic and cross-border corporate finance transactions, M&A transactions and other business combination transactions with an emphasis on issuers in the mining sector. In addition to his transactional experience, Aamir also works with public issuers on their day-to-day securities compliance and disclosure matters including advising mining clients of their mineral project disclosure obligations under securities laws and stock exchange regulations.

Aamir received his J.D/M.B.A. from the University of Toronto Faculty of Law and the Joseph L. Rotman School of Management. Aamir graduated with an Honors Bachelor of Arts (with distinction) in Criminology from Simon Fraser University. Prior to joining Cassels as an associate, Aamir was both a summer and articling student with the firm.
