

Lindsay E. Dykstra

Partner

Contact Information

416 860 6598
ldykstra@cassels.com

Office

Toronto

Expertise

- Business
- Entertainment & Sports
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Intellectual Property

Biography

Lindsay Dykstra is a partner in the Business Group at Cassels. Her practice focuses on entertainment and corporate matters. She has significant transactional experience, and regularly advises clients in the music, film, and television industries on a variety of commercial and copyright matters.

Lindsay also serves on the board of directors of a non-profit organization that supports up-and-coming filmmakers. Prior to joining Cassels, she worked as an associate at another national firm, and interned with an entertainment law firm in Australia.

Recent Representative Work

- The Estate of Eugene Melnyk Completes Sale of the Ottawa Senators Hockey Club
- Cassels Represents Transmission Developers (Canada) in Connection with the Champlain Hudson Power Express (CHPE) Financing
- FF Canadian Leasing Acquires Norfund Capital
- Smart & Biggar Joins IPH Group
- Essity Acquires Knix Wear for US$320 Million

Insights

- Federal Government Announces Additional Financial Support for the Canadian Arts and Culture Sector
- CMF Announces $19 Million “Audiovisual Allocation” of COVID-19 Relief Funding for Film and TV Producers
- Canada Media Fund Emergency Relief Funding Update

Education / Bar Admissions

- J.D., University of British Columbia, 2015
- B.Com. (Hons.), University of British Columbia, 2009
- British Columbia, 2016
- Ontario, 2019

Associations

Cassels

- American Bar Association, Entertainment & Sports Law Forum
- Canadian Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences
- Canadian Bar Association
- Copyright Society of the USA (CSUSA)