Biography

Jared Enns is a partner in the Litigation and Restructuring & Insolvency Groups at Cassels. Jared's commercial litigation practice focuses on commercial lease disputes, shareholder and transactional litigation, contractual disputes and tort claims. His insolvency practice focuses on bankruptcy proceedings, receiverships and commercial restructuring. Jared has broad litigation experience, having appeared before the British Columbia Supreme Court, the Manitoba Court of Queen's Bench and the Manitoba Court of Appeal. Outside of the office, Jared has devoted significant hours to pro bono work, working to further access to justice and LGBT rights within the legal profession and the broader community.

Prior to joining Cassels, Jared practiced at a Winnipeg-based firm and at a large, international firm in Vancouver.
