Biography

David Redmond* is a partner in the Real Estate & Development Group at Cassels. David's practice encompasses all types of commercial real estate transactions. He has a sophisticated commercial mortgage lending practice acting for institutional lenders dealing with all types of financing for commercial properties, including multi-residential, office, shopping centre and industrial developments. David also has extensive experience in purchase and sale transactions, financing and structuring of real estate transactions, commercial leasing, joint ventures and co-ownerships, dealing with REITs and work involving all asset classes in the commercial real estate field. He is recognized as a leader in his field by the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory, Legal500 Canada, and Chambers Canada which notes that clients consider him a "go-to guy for larger, more complex deals."

David's experience includes acting for:

- The purchaser in the acquisition and financing of a major retail shopping centre in Mississauga, Ontario
- The lender in a $100 million portfolio mortgage loan to a retail REIT
- A major Canadian retailer in all aspects of its real estate work, including acquisitions, leasing, dispositions and the negotiations of reciprocal easement and operating agreements
- The purchaser of a large multi-residential unit portfolio (1500 units) in the GTA area
- A crown agency in a complicated land exchange transaction dealing with development properties in downtown Toronto and in the development and sale of formerly contaminated lands in downtown Toronto
