Biography

Amanda Fusco is an associate in our Banking & Specialty Finance Group. Amanda's practice focuses on corporate finance matters and corporate transactions including domestic and cross-border lending transactions and corporate reorganizations.

Amanda received her J.D. from the University of Windsor. At the University of Windsor, Amanda was a finalist in the First Year Moot Court Programme and received an honourable mention for top oralist and best factum in the Zuber Moot. Additionally, she volunteered with Pro Bono Students Canada working on a power of attorney and wills research project. In the fall of 2015, Amanda spent a semester studying abroad at the University of Lucerne in Switzerland where she took courses in International arbitration and International trade law.

Prior to law school, Amanda graduated on the Dean's List from Western University where she received an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminology and Sociology. Before joining Cassels as an associate, Amanda was both a summer and articling student at the firm.
