Biography

Rob Sniderman (he/him/his) is an associate in the Litigation Group at Cassels. Rob has a broad corporate and commercial litigation practice and offers experience in a variety of areas including class action, franchise, and securities matters. Before joining Cassels as an associate, Rob summered and articulated with the firm.

Rob completed his J.D. at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law. During his time at the University of Toronto, he volunteered and worked as a summer caseworker at Downtown Legal Services, the University of Toronto's student legal clinic. As a caseworker in the University Affairs Division of the clinic, Rob represented students accused of academic dishonesty, and assisted students with academic appeals. In this role, he appeared as first chair before multiple administrative tribunals and was responsible for drafting submissions and negotiating settlements.

Prior to law school, Rob obtained an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Toronto, with a double major in Cinema Studies and Ethics, Society and Law. Throughout his degree, he was on the Dean's List and received a number of awards and scholarships for academic excellence. Outside of the office, Rob sits on the Board of Directors for Canada's only all a cappella music festival (SING! The Toronto Vocal Arts Festival) and has sat on various committees at Holy Blossom Temple.
