Cassels

Cassels Lawyers Identified as Leaders in Infrastructure Law by Lexpert

We are proud to note that several Cassels lawyers have been identified as leaders in their field by the most recent Special Edition on Infrastructure published by Lexpert. This year's Special Edition profiles Lexpert-ranked lawyers and covers trends in infrastructure and public-private partnerships.

Those highlighted this year include:

- Matthew Alter
- Graham Brown
- John Christian
- Thomas Isaac
- Alan Merskey
- Mark St. Cyr

In addition, as part of the Special Edition, Mark St. Cyr was quoted in the featured article "Pricing and Complexity Driving Disputes in Infrastructure Construction Projects."

Writes Aidan McNab: "Inflation and interest rates are driving unpredictability and pushing parties to pursue resolution." Mark St. Cyr notes that he has noticed a "big shift" in the market, with contractors pushing to accelerate alternative dispute processes.

Read the full article here.

See the full Special Edition here.